The 12th October 1874:

With reference to the Chief Commissioner's Notification No. 180 of the 23rd ultimo, vesting Mr. T. R. A. Tambu Chetti, Judicial Assistant of the Bangalore District, with the powers of a Judicial Assistant also in the Kolar District, the following arrangements for the despatch of business have been made, and are hereby notified for general information.

During the absence of the Judicial Assistant from the Head Quarters of the Bangalore and Kolar Districts, the Sheristadars of both the Courts are empowered to carry on the routine work of their respective Courts. They are also empowered—

- (a) to receive complaints, petitions and applications for execution, &c., which parties may wish to present;
- (b) to attend to all requisitions from other Courts for the service of summonses and other processes;
- (c) to attend to the requisitions from other Courts for the transmission of records or other papers;
- (d) to furnish authenticated copies of judgments, decrees and orders that may be applied for by the parties;
- (e) to grant the usual deposit orders to enable parties or pleaders to pay into the Treasury money in satisfaction of decrees or orders; such deposit orders will be signed by the Sheristadars "For Judicial Assistant;"
- (f) to set down for hearing, on dates which may be fixed in communication with the Judge, all complaints and petitions and applications received during the absence of the Judicial Assistant, on which no judicial orders could be passed without giving notice to the other side;
- (g) to collect batta required for the issue of summonses and other processes, and—
- (h) to attend to every thing which would ensure the complaints, petitions and applications aforesaid being brought on for hearing as soon as the Judicial Assistant returns to Head Quarters or to the stations in which he is permitted to hold a Circuit Court.

All correspondence which may be carried on by the Sheristadar in the disposal of the routine work above detailed, and all processes of the nature specified in Judicial Commissioner's Circular No. 2049—106, dated 18th January 1870, may be signed by the Sheristadar; but the words "by Order of the Court" should invariably precede the signature of the said Ministerial Officer.

Parties who may be desirous of paying subsistence money in advance on account of defendants incarcerated in the Civil Jail by order of the Court, are directed to make the payments to the Officer in charge of the Jail under the provisions of Section 276, Civil Procedure Code.

The Judicial Assistant will hold Court once a week at Bowringpet, i. e. every Saturday, for the disposal of emergent applications that may be preferred to him, and such other business as may be conveniently disposed of at that place. The small causes arising within the Municipal limits of the town of Kolar, as also the execution cases connected therewith, will be disposed of by the Judicial Assistant at Kolar. The regular cases and appeals, and other execution cases of that District will be disposed of either at Kolar, Bowringpet or Malur on such dates as may be arranged by the Judicial Assistant to suit the convenience of the parties. Due notice being given of the date and place at which the Court will be held.

J. D. GORDON,
Judicial Commissioner.

INAM DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATIONS.

No. 10.

The 26th September 1874.

It is hereby notified that the investigation of the inams in the Taluk of Devanhalli of the Bangalore District has been resumed by Mr. T. Kitto, Offg. Assistant Inam Superintendent, from the 18th June 1874.

All parties interested in the said inams, and whose claims may not have been adjudicated by this Department, are directed to attend the Office of the Assistant, at the Kasba town of Devanhalli, either in person or by vakil in due time, to prosecute their claims; in default, their inams will be attached and finally resumed.

No. 11.

The 5th October 1874.

Frequent applications having been made by inamdars to have the transfer of their enfranchised inams recorded in this Office Registers, it is hereby notified, under the orders of the Chief Commissioner, that such applications are unnecessary and should be discontinued.

2. When an inam has once been enfranchised by this Department, the party or parties named in the title-deeds are at liberty to transfer the same under the terms clearly laid down therein; such transfer being governed by the rules in force with respect thereto.
